

January 21, 1999

---

WASHINGTON -- The Democratic Caucus of the House Appropriations Committee has named Congressman John W. Olver (D-1st District) the Ranking Democratic Member of the

"My number one issue will be to improve the living and working conditions for our servicemen and

The legislative jurisdiction of the MilCon Subcommittee is funding for all domestic and foreign

The First Congressional District includes Barnes Air National Guard Base in Westfield and is

"There will be more rounds of base closures, although they are not likely until after the President

During the 105th Congress, Olver secured funding for a new dining facility and Army National

"Barnes and Westover have benefitted in the last two years from restructuring that has brought

Olver also rose to the number two Democratic spot on the Transportation Appropriations Subcommittee

###